its duties will be to move the various departmental heads in respect of their respective activities. It will be understood, however, that any action that has to be taken or expenditure incurred in any co-operating department, will be done by the head of the department, if within his own normal powers, and if in excess of his normal powers, the orders and sanction of the Government must be obtained. Heads of departments must bear in mind, in this connexion, what has been set forth in paragraphs 4, 5 and 6 above. The Collector and his Board, as such, will have no financial or administrative authority.

8. Subject to the foregoing remarks and stipulations, the Government are pleased to approve of the scheme submitted to them and authorize the Director of Public Health to move the authorities of the Rockefeller Foundation for the proposed grant. In doing so, he will communicate to them a copy of this order for their consideration.
